The UHN established a statewide weekly COVID-19 collaborative call as a forum to solve problems with access to testing, vaccination planning, and emergency planning. This body also allocates state and federal funding, establishes best practices, and holds agencies accountable by evaluating performance measures for funded projects.

endutahhomelessness.org