

Housing Types

Rapid Re-Housing

Rapid re-housing (RRH) provides short-term rental assistance and services. The goals are to help people obtain housing quickly, increase self-sufficiency, and stay housed. It is offered without preconditions (such as employment, income, absence of a criminal record, or sobriety), and the resources and services provided are typically tailored to the needs of the person.

80%

Exit to Permanent Destination/Housing

Permanent Supportive Housing

Permanent supportive housing (PSH) is a proven solution to homelessness for the most vulnerable chronically homeless people. It pairs housing with case management and supportive services. PSH is designed to build independent living and tenancy skills and connect people with community-based health care, treatment and employment services.

96%

Retention Rate

Section 8

The Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program (formerly known as Section 8) is a federally-funded, locally-administered rental assistance program that helps lower-income families, the elderly, and persons with disabilities afford safe, decent housing in the private market. Participants may choose any housing type that suits the need of their family, as long as the requirements of the program are met.

Eligibility

- Rehousing
- Vulnerability
- Special Population
- Length of Homelessness

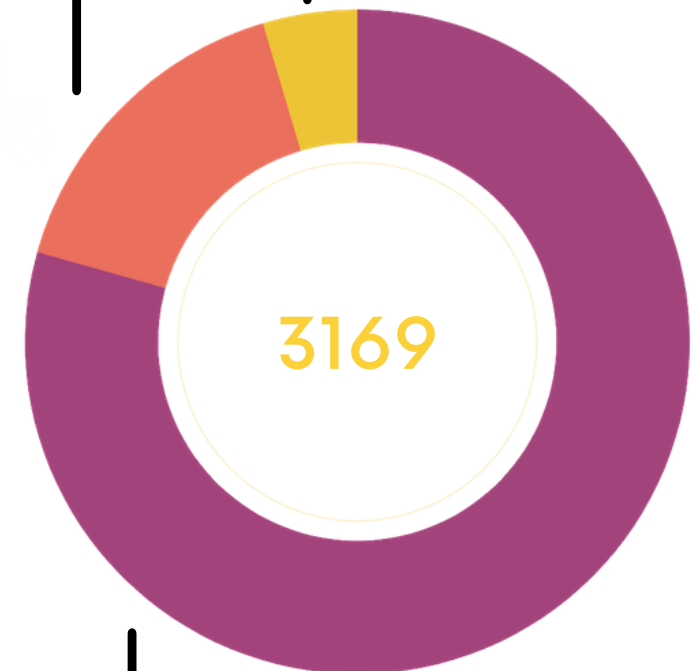

Housing Inventory in Salt Lake County

509

Rapid Re-Housing

145

Other

2515

Permanent Supportive Housing

Paths to Housing

Individual or Family at-risk seeking assistance

Homeless Coordinated Intake Line

Outreach

Encampments

Resource Centers provides support services for 24/7 access, connecting unsheltered individuals and families with immediate care.

Diversion
At any point in the process, diversion (finding a relative to let them stay, resolving dispute with their landlord, etc.) is prioritized for these individuals and families.

Section 8
Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program (formerly known as Section 8) is a federally-funded, locally-administered rental assistance program that helps lower-income families, the elderly, and persons with disabilities afford safe, decent housing in the private market.

Permanent Supportive Housing
is a proven solution to homelessness for the most vulnerable chronically homeless people. It pairs housing with case management and supportive services.

Rapid Rehousing
provides short-term rental assistance and services. The goals are to help people obtain housing quickly, increase self-sufficiency, and stay housed.

