  - ▶ Balance of ARD: $1,034,748
  - ▶ Anticipated Bonus Funding: $1,241,697
- ▶ Anticipated DV Bonus Funding: $1,179,296
- ▶ Total Funding: $12,768,471

Importance of Collaborative Application

- ▶ Tier 2 Scoring:
  - ▶ 50 points for CoC application score (Collaborative Score)
  - ▶ 40 Points for CoC's ranking
  - ▶ 10 points for Housing First commitment

Eligible Applicants

- ▶ Nonprofit organizations
- ▶ States
- ▶ Local governments
- ▶ Instrumentalities of State and local governments
- ▶ Indian Tribes and TDHE
- ▶ Public housing agencies
- ▶ For-profit entities are not eligible to apply for grants or to be subrecipients of grant funds.
- ▶ Projects are limited to serving persons in Salt Lake County.

New Projects - Bonus/Reallocation

- ▶ Any eligible organization can apply, whether or not they have previously received HUD funding.
- ▶ All applicants should closely review the new project detailed instructions, instructional guides and funding announcements to ensure that applications are complete.
- ▶ New Project applicants will be assessed both on the Applicant's organizational capacity, community need and the HUD project application.
- ▶ Expansion
  - ▶ A CoC funded project can submit a new project application to expand its current program.

Transition Grants

- ▶ Option to transition an existing renewable project type to a new eligible project type (ex. TH to RRH) through the application process.
- ▶ Provider must remain the same
- ▶ Allows for shift to new type over the course of the grant year.
- ▶ No longer limited to 50% of funding to be used for costs of eligible activities of the original project type.

PH-PSH

- ▶ New PH-PSH projects must serve one of the following:
  - ▶ (a) persons eligible to be served by DedicatedPLUS projects as described in section I.B.2.b.(7) of this NOFO in which case all units funded by the project must be used to serve program participants who meet the qualifications for DedicatedPLUS; or
  - ▶ (b) persons who are experiencing chronic homelessness [see 24 CFR 578.3 definition of Chronically Homeless] at the time they initially enroll in the project
  - ▶ Funding request can be for rental assistance, leasing, operations, supportive services, acquisition, new construction, rehabilitation, and admin
- ▶ Not eligible for DV Bonus Funds

DedicatedPLUS

- ▶ A PSH project where 100 percent of the beds are dedicated to serve individuals, households with children, and unaccompanied youth (including pregnant and parenting youth) who at intake meet one of the following categories:
  - ▶ (a) experiencing chronic homelessness, meaning they qualify as “chronically homeless” as defined in 24 CFR 578.3;
  - ▶ (b) residing in a TH project that will be eliminated and meets the definition of chronically homeless in effect at the time in which the individual or family entered the TH project;
  - ▶ (c) residing in a place not meant for human habitation, emergency shelter, or Safe Haven and had been admitted and enrolled in a PH project within the last year but were unable to maintain a housing placement and met the definition of chronically homeless as defined by 24 CFR 578.3 prior to entering the project;
  - ▶ (d) residing in transitional housing funded by a Joint TH/PH-RRH component project and who were experiencing chronic homelessness as defined by 24 CFR 578.3;
  - ▶ (e) residing and has resided in a place not meant for human habitation, Safe Haven, or emergency shelter for at least 12 months in the last three years, but has not done so on four separate occasions and the individual or head of household meet the definition of 'homeless individual with a disability; or
  - ▶ (f) receiving assistance through a Department of Veterans Affairs (VA)-funded homeless assistance program and met one of the above criteria at initial intake to the VA's homeless assistance system.
  - ▶ (g) A renewal project where 100 percent of the beds were dedicated to individuals and families experiencing chronic homelessness, as described in section I.B.2.b.(2), under the grant that is being renewed may either be reallocated as a DedicatedPLUS project or may continue as a renewal dedicating 100 percent of its beds to individuals and families experiencing chronic homelessness. If the project is reallocated as a DedicatedPLUS project, the project must adhere to all fair housing requirements at 24 CFR 578.93.

PH-RRH

- ▶ Permanent housing-rapid rehousing (PH-RRH) projects which serve
  - ▶ Homeless individuals

Salt Lake County CoC New Project Application Submission

The Salt Lake Valley Coalition to End Homelessness is responsible for oversight of the Salt Lake City & County Continuum of Care and Salt Lake County Government is the Collaborative Applicant. In compliance with HUD requirements, the CoC intends to evaluate projects and make funding decisions based on HUD and local priorities and project performance. The Ranking Committee will review the performance of existing CoC renewal projects. The Committee will further evaluate new project funding applications and determine if they are to be included as part of the CoC Application to HUD.

In response to the HUD Supplemental NOFO and the HUD Annual NOFO, projects seeking first-time funding through the Continuum of Care are hereby notified that the project application will be a two-part process; Part I: Local Application (PDF and SmartSheets Submission) and Part II: HUD (E-snaps) Application.

Funding available for our community in the Supplemental NOFO is no more than $6,497,190 over three years.

The maximum available for reallocation ($9,519,739) represents the Continuum's Annual Renewal Demand, or the amount needed to fund all existing renewal projects for one year. This is funding available for renewal and new projects created through reallocation. Additional funding is available through Bonus and DV Bonus Funds.

Projects passing minimum threshold requirements will be evaluated by the Ranking Committee for possible ranking and submitted with the CoC Application to HUD.

The application is due via SmartSheets and e-snaps by August 26, 2022 by 5:00 PM.
