Notice: Release of Renewal Application for HMIS Projects in the FY2024/25 HUD CoC Competition

I. OVERVIEW

The Salt Lake Valley Coalition to End Homelessness (SLVCEH) is responsible for oversight of the Salt Lake City & County Continuum of Care and Salt Lake County Government is the Collaborative Applicant. In compliance with HUD requirements, the CoC intends to evaluate projects and make funding decisions based on HUD and local priorities and project performance. The Ranking Committee will review the performance of CoC renewal HMIS projects.

For the FY2024/25 HUD CoC grant competition, HMIS renewal projects, are hereby notified that the project application will require submission of the E-snaps Application for HMIS Renewal Funds and coordinating with Salt Lake County to complete sections of the Collaborative Application.

II. ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

Only HMIS Renewal projects that were funded through the FY2023 renewal process are eligible to apply for HMIS Renewal funds.

The Grant Inventory Worksheet Indicates that the renewal amount for the HMIS project is $266,275.

III. APPLICATION PROCESS

The Application is the E-snaps application as produced by HUD.

Our CoC will continue with a standard naming convention for project applications. As you create your renewal application, please follow this formula:

Agency Acronym, Project Name, HUD Competition Year

e.g. SLCO CH Housing project FY2024

Applicants for HMIS renewal funds should follow the process outlined in the NOFO and the instructional guides available here.

IV. SUBMISSION

The E-snaps portion of the application may be accessed here: <https://esnaps.hud.gov/grantium/frontOffice.jsf>

V. DEADLINE

The application is due in E-snaps by 5 pm on Tuesday, September 24, 2024.
